Wilson Leads Rebels To 24-14 Win Over R-H

Quarterback Steve Wilson rallied the Appomattox Rebels to a 24-14 come from behind win over the Statesmen of Randolph Henry last Friday in a non district football game at Appomattox. The win gave the Rebels a 2-1 overall mark and they are 1-1 in the district.

Randolph-Henry got on the scoreboard with 5:30 left in the first quarter. The Rebels forced them to punt, but a fumble on the punt and a R-H recovery set up the touchdown. Randy Hailey scored from three yards out as they went 57 yards in 13 plays. Clinton Austin added the extra point for a 8-0 lead.

Steve Wilson tied the game up with 10:20 left in the second quarter when he scored from two yards out and added the extra point also. They got a R.H. punt on the 21 yard line and scored four plays later.

In the third quarter, Randolph - Henry got back out in front when Ray Smith, R. H. quarterback, passed eight yards to end Rocky Garrett for a six-pointer. The extra point failed and it was 14-8 with 4:13 left in the third quarter.

Den Conner fell on a R-H fumble with 9:07 left in the game on the R-H 33 yard line.

Mike McCormick gained four yards, Wilson hit Sammy Page with a 22 yard pass and a first down and then Wilson scored a couple of plays later on an eight yard run to tie the game and then ran the extra point for a 16-14 lead. The clock then had 6:51 left in the game as they had moved the ball 33 yards in five plays.

The Rebels kicked off and the defense forced the Statesman to punt and the offense, behind the callings of Wilson started on their own 27 yard line and marched 73 yards in 12 plays with Wilson again scoring. He went in on a one yard plunge with 20 seconds left in the game. He hit end Sammy Page on a jump pass over the middle for the two points and a 24-14 lead. In that drive Mike McCormick and Lee Conner ripped off back to back runs of 26 and 23 yards.

The Rebels defense was led by Lee Conner, Don Conner, Steve Lawson, Ronnie Henderson, Plicky Williams, Billy Guthrie and Steve Wilson, who also had a pass interception to his credit on the last play of the game. Wilson and McCormick led the offense rushing with about 120 yards between them.

Randolph Henry was led on offense by Randy Hailey who gained about 80 yards in the first half, but was out in the second half because of an injury. Olemiel Randolph and Clinton Austin gained about 70 among them to add to their defense. The defense was led by Billy Berkley and Bobby Lilly who were credited with eight individual tackles apiece.

The Rebels meet Gretna this Friday in another district game at home.

Hickory House

kory House Drive In Restaurant here.

The new Charlottesville Hickory House will be in operation by the end of September and will feature the "Cavalier Rathskeller." Rathskeller is a popular German style basement cafe. The main floor will adhere to the regular American type of operation. The new restaurant will be located directly across the street from the University of Virginia Medical School on University Avenue.

The traditional Hickory House Chestnut brown will identify the front along with a colonial sign and the familiar brown and orange Hickory House flag.

The Charlottesville restaurant will be a walk in operation with split level floors rather than the drive-in type.

Hickory House, Charlottesville, will feature their famous pit cooked Bar BQ of chicken and pork along with their new "My Mothers" deep fried golden crisp chicken. Hickory House now has a new roast beef sandwich which will also be featured along with their other famous foods, including pizza, fresh strawberry pies and other home made pies. The new restaurant will also offer new Hickory House, always tender, charbroiled flank steaks on their menu.

Carlton C. Dunn, local Hickory House manager, will assume new managerial duties of the larger restaurant in Charlottesville, Robert Kowatch, veteran restaurant operator in Lynchburg will be the incoming manager in Appomattox.

Weatherly added that his organization is grateful for the enthusiastic patronage County residents have given the Appomattox Hickory House. He stated that the Hickory House constantly works toward improving each food item stressing efficient courteous service and fair prices for the benefit of their customers, and that they will continue to offer the Hickory House hand of friendship to all who eat with them.

Hickory House began curb service last week. Customers can be served in their cars in cold or rainy weather or can call in their orders which will be brought to their car on arrival. Weatherly said he hoped families will take advantage of this new service by eating out more, giving parents leisure time and pleasure.

Students Return To Campuses

Appomattox County students returning to college campuses for the 1969-70 session who are graduates of Carver-Price High School are:

Gilbert L. James, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. G. L. James, who returned to Arkansas A.M. & N. College in Pine Bluff, Arkansas to complete his senior year as an Agriculture Education major.

Rita Viola Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E.T. Johnson, returned to Hampton Institute to continue her studies as an English major. She will serve as a tutor, having been invited to serve in this capacity.

Mary M. Webb, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lacey Webb, entered Bennett College in Greensboro, N. C., to major in Home Economics Education.

Dorothy A. Lockett and Edward Lockett, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Lockett of Evergreen, Va., returned to their studies at Johnson C. Smith University in Charlotte, N. C., and Livingstone College in Salisbury, N. C., respectively. Dorothy is a Math Major and Edward is a Biology Major.

Larry C. Robinson, son of Mr and Mrs. Coleman Robinson, entered Fayetteville State College on a full athletic scholarship for his outstanding work in basketball.

Willie Jones, daughter of Mrs Willie B. Jones, and Doris A. Austin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs Cris Austin, are attending Central Virginia Community College in Lynchburg, Va. Willie is majoring in Data Processing and Doris is majoring in Secretarial Science.

Ralph Winston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. West of Appomattox, entered Hampton Institute as a freshman, majoring Physical Education.

Elaine Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Jones of Pamplin, resumed her studies at Virginia Union University in Richmond, Va. where she is majoring in Elementary Education.

Rowena M. Ferguson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Manley Ferguson of Concord, returned to Virginia State College in Petersburg, Va. to continue her studies as a Business Education Major.

Raymond A. Elliott, son of Rev. and Mrs. C. L. Elliott, returned to Virginia State College, Petersburg, to continue his studies as a Music Major.

Michael E. Lewis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hope Lewis of Gladstone, entered Virginia State College, Petersburg, as a freshman, majoring in Mathematics.

George C. Ferguson, son of Mr. George Ferguson of Evergreen, entered Shaw University in Raleigh, N. C., as a freshman, majoring in Political Science.

Supermarket Open

The newest Kings Market in the chain begun in Appomattox opened Tuesday with a grand opening at 2217 Memorial Avenue, Lynchburg.

Ralph J. King is president of the concern, which also has stores in Halifax, Altavista, Brookneal, plus three additional stores in Lynchburg.

A modified Dutch Colonial architectural design is used for the facility, which cost approximately $250,000. J. E. Jamerson and Sons, Inc. of Appomattox were general contractors for the store.

Earl Wagoner of Lynchburg, store manager, said that the store's interior is different from any other supermarket. There is full wall-to-wall carpeting, wall paper on the side walls and paneling on the back wall.

The arrangement of the departments in the new store also is different from others, the manager said. In the shopper, the meat department will come first.

The reason for this, Wagoner explained, is that a family's "meal is based around the meats. The shopper usually gets these first: so, we have it this first in the shopper's route."

Honors Gain Early Admission To Sweet Briar

Kathleen (Kathy) Eleanor Williams may be the area's only high school dropout headed for college next month with assurances of making it stick ... in a big way.

Sweet Briar, which has accepted her for admission in September, is more interested in her proven academic record than in this high school junior waiting around another year.

School Helper

Miss Williams, the daughter of Judge J. Taylor Williams and Mrs. Kathleen Nuckols Williams, of Cumberland, is the granddaughter of Elmer Nuckols and the late B. Norvell, of Concord, the Rev. Dr. W. H. Williams and the late Judge Glen Sydnor.

The Caldwell sisters remember their "uncle Bob" Robert Edwin Caldwell, who loved to march in salutes to the Confederacy. He is pictured in Vara Smith Stanley's "History of Appomattox County" together with Clarence Doss, WWI veteran, leading a parade on Memorial Day in the early 1900's.

For Mrs. Dean, particularly, joining the UDC chapter of Appomattox brings back exciting memories. On her graduation night from Appomattox High School in 1926 she carried home the UDC Essay Contest medal presented to her for her winning entry, "The Ending of the War At Appomattox."

There were eight children in the Madison Clark Caldwell family with six still living including the four sisters plus two brothers, Hubert Caldwell, Sr. of Appomattox and Jones Caldwell, of Lynchburg.
